PARISH NEWS 15 July—22 July

Catholic Mission Appeal

This weekend we warmly welcome
Fr Kelvin Barrett and Syona Fernandez who will speak to us about the important work of the Catholic Mission.

Fr Kelvin Barrett SSC is a Columban missionary priest who has spent many years on overseas missionary service in a number of countries in the East Asian region. He has been the coordinator of the Columban Lay missionary programme both in Australia and overseas for a number of years. He has been appointed to Perth recently after being a spiritual director and retreat master in Melbourne. Syona Fernandez recently graduated from the University of Notre Dame with a degree in Health Sciences. She is an active volunteer youth leader for her parish, Vinnies Youth and Catholic Youth Ministry. Through Catholic Mission, Syona has recently spent time in rural Myanmar running retreats for the local parish youth leadership programme. She has also had missionary experiences in Cambodia and India.

Your donation to Catholic Mission's Propagation of the Faith Appeal strengthens the daily pastoral and educational work and sacramental presence of our missionary Church in every developing country in the world. Please give generously this weekend!

Church Parking

Dear Parishioners,

This is a gentle reminder to ask all able-bodied parishioners, to please leave the under-cover area in front of the church for our very elderly, infirm and immobile parishioners who really require this space for access to the church.

Please also be aware of health and safety requirements, that it is vital to ensure that this undercover area is not blocked to allow easy ambulance access should an emergency arise.

If we can all try to follow these steps everyone will be able to come to Mass stress-free, with open hearts and minds, ready to receive all the blessings that an encounter with Christ offers.

I thank you for your kindness in remembering those whose lives are challenged by infirmity. Fr Emil
